

Chapter 50: LUCKY FOR LIFE GAME RULES

PART I – ADMINISTRATION

Section 1.0

The following game rules govern the operation of the “Lucky for Life” game. These rules apply unless otherwise inconsistent with the constitutional provisions, statutes, regulations and rules of each Party Lottery (herein after collectively referred to as “state laws”).

- 1.1 The Connecticut Lottery Corporation, the Maine State Liquor & Lottery Commission, the Massachusetts State Lottery Commission, the New Hampshire Lottery Commission, the Rhode Island Division of State Lottery and the Vermont Lottery Commission (hereinafter the “Party Lotteries”) have formally agreed to jointly operate a regional lottery game known as “Lucky for Life” pursuant to the Lucky for Life Regional Game Agreement and such other related procedures agreed to by the Party Lotteries.
- 1.2 The purpose of the “Lucky for Life” game is to generate revenue for the Party Lotteries through the operation of a regional lottery game that will award prizes to Game Ticket holders matching specified combinations of numbers randomly-selected in regularly scheduled drawings.
- 1.3 The “Lucky for Life” game, described herein, shall commence sales by any one of the Party Lotteries on ~~March 11, 2012~~ September 17, 2013 and shall continue until terminated. Upon a decision to terminate the game, the Party Lotteries shall publicly announce a termination date. The first drawing for the “Lucky for Life” game shall be held on ~~March 15, 2012~~ September 19, 2013.

PART III – DRAWING PROCEDURES

The Directors shall establish the drawing procedures for the “Lucky for Life” game drawings, including a drawing problem resolution mechanism. All drawings shall be open to the public and shall be witnessed by an Independent Certified Public Accounting Firm. Any equipment used in a drawing shall be inspected at least annually and in the presence of an Independent Certified Public Accounting Firm. All drawings, including pre and post test drawings shall be recorded.

PART IV – GAME DESCRIPTION AND CHARACTERISTICS.

- 4.0 Game Designation. For purposes of identification, the “Lucky for Life” game shall have a designated game number in the On-Line Gaming System.
- 4.1 Game Design. The “Lucky for Life” game is a double matrix-style game, drawn each Monday and Thursday, in which players select five (5) unique numbers in the Matrix 1 from one (1) to forty-~~three~~ (4043) inclusive PLUS one (1) Lucky Ball number in the Matrix 2 from one (1) to ~~twenty-one~~forty-three (2143) inclusive. The additional number may be the same as one of the first five numbers selected by the player.
- 4.2 Game Purchases. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets must be purchased from a terminal operated by a licensed Sales Retailer, a Player Activated Terminal (if available) by using a touch screen or by inserting a selection slip into the machine, a lottery subscription system (if available) or such other means as approved by the Party Lottery.
- 4.3 Ticket Format. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets shall include, but not be limited to, the player’s number selections, game logo or game name, ticket cost, terminal number, barcode, quick pick (if selected), replay (if selected), serial number and drawing date. Advance Action tickets shall visibly show the beginning and ending draw dates. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may also include the selling date, time stamp and any information required by a Party Lottery’s state laws pertaining to the validation of Game Tickets.
- 4.4 Ticket Price
- 4.4.1 Uniform Price. Each “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket shall be sold at retail for the price set by the Directors.
- 4.4.2 Taxes. The Game Ticket price set by the Directors shall include all the applicable taxes which a Party Lottery may be required to collect.
- 4.4.3 Cost Per Play. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may be purchased for $2.00 per play, or multiples thereof, in accordance with these rules. The player receives one play for each $2.00 wagered. Each play contains six numbers (the first five from Matrix 1 containing forty-~~three~~ (4043) numbers and the last number from Matrix 2 containing ~~twenty-one~~forty-three (2143) numbers).
- 4.4.4 Promotions. Promotions shall mean marketing or advertising intended to increase sales of the “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets (excluding Subscription Tickets or Advance Action) through a discount or rebate. A Party Lottery may offer “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets through promotions without approval of the Directors, for a period not to exceed 90 days in any six-month period as long as advance notification of 30 days is provided to all Party Lotteries of the terms and dates of the promotional offering.

4.4.5 Tickets as Prizes. A Party Lottery may offer “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets as a prize in any other lottery game after advising all Party Lotteries of the terms and dates of such action.

4.4.6 Contribution to Prize Pool. The Party Lottery may offer Game Tickets as a prize or as part of an authorized promotion provided that all such Game Ticket sales are assessed and reported to the prize pool at the full gross sales amount.

4.5 Play Restrictions and Play Styles

4.5.1 Ticket Sales to Minors Prohibited. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may not be sold to or purchased by minors under the age of 18 years.

4.5.2 Ticket Cashing by Minors. Subject to the state laws of each Party Lottery, “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may not be cashed or redeemed by minors under the age of 18 years.

4.5.3 Ineligible Players. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets shall not be purchased, and a prize won by any such Game Ticket or share, either in whole or in part, shall not be paid to:

4.5.3.1 A Party Lottery officer, director, board member or commissioner.

4.5.3.2 A contractor or consultant under agreement with any Party Lottery to perform audit and security procedures.

4.5.3.3 An employee of the independent certified public accounting firm under contract with any Party Lottery to oversee “Lucky for Life” drawings.

4.5.3.4 An employee of the Party Lottery’s on-line vendor.

4.5.3.5 An employee of the Party Lottery’s advertising or public relations provider.

4.5.3.6 An employee of the Party Lottery’s instant ticket print vendors.

4.5.3.7 An immediate family party (parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, spouse, sibling or person engaged in a domestic partnership or civil union) of an individual described in this section a member of the same household in the principle place of residence of any such person.

4.5.3.8 Any of the persons set forth in 8 M.R.S.A. Section 381.

- 4.6 Ticket Cancellations Prohibited. A “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket may not be cancelled or voided by returning the Game Ticket to the Sales Retailer or to the Lottery. A “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket accepted by the Sales Retailer as a returned ticket and which cannot be resold shall be deemed as owned by the bearer thereof. This prohibition also applies to a “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket that may be printed in error by the Sales Retailer. Subject to the state laws of each Party Lottery, no “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket, or physical portion thereof, which may be used to claim a prize, shall be returned to the Party Lottery for credit.
- 4.7 Game Sell-Out Prohibited. The Party Lotteries shall not directly and knowingly sell a Game Ticket or combination of Game Tickets to any natural person or legal entity that would guarantee such purchaser a Top Prize or second prize win.
- 4.8 Claims. A “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket, subject to the validation requirements of the Party Lotteries as detailed in Section 5.2 of these rules shall be the only proof of a game play (or plays) and the submission of a winning Game Ticket to the Party Lottery’s Lucky for Life Authorized Claim Center shall be the sole method of claiming a prize or prizes. A play slip has no pecuniary or prize value and shall not constitute evidence of Game Ticket purchase or of numbers selected. Under no circumstances will a claim be paid for a Top Prize or a second prize without a winning “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket. Subject to the state laws of each Party Lottery, lost or missing “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may not be honored or processed for payment or replacement.
- 4.9 Use of Play Slips. Players may submit a completed “Lucky for Life” play slip to any licensed Sales Retailer to have issued a “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket. Play slips shall be available at no cost to the Purchaser and shall have no pecuniary or prize value, or constitute evidence of purchase or number selections. The use of facsimiles of play slips, copies of play slips, or other materials that are inserted into the terminal’s play slip reader that are not printed or approved by the Party Lottery is not permitted. Sales Retailers shall not permit any device to be connected to a lottery terminal to enter plays, except as approved by the Party Lottery.
- 4.10 Manual Entry. Players may convey their number selections to any licensed Sales Retailer for a “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket. Such number selections shall be manually entered into the on-line terminal by the licensed Sales Retailer.
- 4.11 Quick Pick. Players may either request a Quick Pick “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket from a licensed Sales Retailer or may select the Quick Pick option on the play slip and submit the completed “Lucky for Life” play slip to any licensed Sales Retailer. Quick Pick shall be differentiated from Customer Select in that Quick Pick shall refer to the random selection of numbers made by the On-Line Gaming System rather than by the Player.
- 4.12 Customer Select. Players may select their own numbers by completing a “Lucky for Life” play slip or by conveying their number selections directly to any licensed Sales Retailer. Customer Select shall be differentiated from Quick Pick in that Customer Select shall refer to number selections made by the Player rather than the On-Line Gaming System.

- 4.13 Replay Feature. If available, players may utilize the barcodes of already-purchased “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets to duplicate another Game Ticket of the same price and with the same number selections and options. To replay, players may either make the request of a licensed Sales Retailer or may scan the barcode directly into a Player Activated or Self-Service Terminal, if authorized.
- 4.14 Advance Action or Multi-Draw. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may be purchased for future drawings, as available in each Party Lottery.
- 4.15 Subscriptions or Season Tickets. “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets may be purchased by subscription, if authorized by a Party Lottery.
- 4.16 Limited to Highest Prize Won. In connection with the winning numbers drawn, the holder of a winning “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket may win only one prize per play, board or panel, and shall be entitled only to the prize won by those numbers in the highest matching prize category.
- 4.17 Prize Claim Period. All prize claims including the top prize shall be made within one (1) year after the drawing date.
- 4.18 Player Responsibility. It shall be the sole responsibility of the player to verify the accuracy of the game play (or plays) and the other data printed on the Game Ticket. The placing of wagers is done at the player’s own risk through the Sales Retailer who is acting on behalf of the player in entering the play or plays.
- 4.19 Prize Payments. A Party Lottery may not pay prizes that are less than or more than the prize amounts established in accordance with the rules. The prize won cannot be indirectly increased by promotions or retailer promotions which would have the effect of increasing the authorized “Lucky for Life” prize.
- 4.20 Expired Unclaimed Prizes. Prizes which are unclaimed for a period of one (1) year after the drawing date on the ticket revert to the expired unclaimed prize pool to be distributed to players in the form of special promotions or drawings.
- 4.21 Ticket Validation.
- 4.21.1 General Requirements for Validation. To be a valid ticket and eligible to receive a prize, a ticket shall satisfy all the requirements established by the Party Lotteries for validation of winning tickets sold through its on-line system as set forth in Section 4.21.2 of these rules and any other validation requirements adopted by the Directors.
- 4.21.2 Specific Requirements for Validation of Tickets Sold in Maine. To be a valid ticket and eligible to receive a prize, all the following requirements must be satisfied:

- 4.21.2.1 The ticket must have been issued by the Lottery through a licensed agent, via a terminal, in an authorized manner. The ticket must be intact and must not be mutilated, altered, reconstructed, or tampered with in any manner.
- 4.21.2.2 The ticket date must have been recorded in the Lottery's central computer system at least sixty (60) minutes prior to the drawing; even if it appears that a bet is accepted (by virtue of a printed ticket), any bet placed other than at least sixty (60) minutes prior to the drawing (regardless of when the drawing is held) is void.
- 4.21.2.3 The information appearing on the ticket must correspond precisely with the party Lottery's computer record.
- 4.21.2.4 The ticket validation number must appear in its entirety, and correspond, using a computer validation file, to the winning game play or plays printed on the ticket. The ticket stock sequential number on the back of the ticket must correspond to the Lottery's inventory records.
- 4.21.2.5 The ticket must not be defectively printed, fuzzy, produced in error, counterfeit in whole or in part, altered, unreadable, reconstructed, tampered with in any manner, stolen, blank or partially blank, misregistered, or defective.
- 4.21.2.6 All information appearing on an apparent winning ticket must correspond to the Lottery's records of winning tickets, and another ticket with identical data shall not have been paid.
- 4.21.2.7 The ticket must be intact, fully legible, complete and not miscut, correspond to the data on file at the Lottery in every respect.
- 4.21.2.8 The ticket must pass all other security criteria determined by BABLO and the Party Lotteries
- 4.21.2.9 The ticket must be validated in accordance with the provisions of these rules relating to the procedures for claiming prizes and for the payment thereof.
- 4.21.2.10 An apparent winning ticket shall be void unless the ticket paper stock roll which was in use at the time of the bet by, and validly issued to, the agent from whom the ticket was purchased.

- 4.21.2.11 In the event that a ticket fails to pass all the criteria set forth in Section 4.21.2 of these rule, the ticket shall be deemed void and ineligible for any prize and shall not be paid. In the event of a dispute or other instance of doubt, the decision of the director shall be final and binding. If the director determines that the ticket is not eligible to receive a prize, then the director may, at the director's option, replace an invalid, defective or otherwise erroneous ticket with a ticket of equivalent sales price from any current lottery game. Replacement of the ticket shall be the bearer or claimant's sole and exclusive remedy.

PART V – PRIZE LIABILITY LIMITS, PRIZE PAYOUTS AND PRIZE LEVELS

The “Lucky for Life” game is a set and split prize payout game with winning Game Tickets determined by matching five (5) unique numbers from a field of forty-three (4043) numbers (Matrix 1) PLUS one (1) Lucky Ball number from a separate and distinct field of twenty-fourty-three (2443) numbers (Matrix 2). The additional number may be the same as one of the first five numbers selected by the player. The following paragraphs and chart define the prize liability limits, prize payouts, prize levels and pool percentages and chances of winning per prize level.

5.0 Prize Liability Limits. There are 10 prize levels in the “Lucky for Life” game.

- 5.0.1 Except as provided in these rules, the Top Prize (Prize Level #1) shall be annuitized and based on a ~~top~~Top prizePrize liability that will be split equally among the number of winning Game Tickets. A Top Prize winner may request the Cash Option, the amount of which is to be established by unanimous vote of the Directors for a defined period of drawings. Notice of the amount of and changes to the Cash Option shall be posted on the Lucky for Life website and/or published in each jurisdiction in a manner determined by its respective Party Lottery (hereinafter referred to as the “Published Notice”) at least thirty (30) days prior to the first drawing to which it is applicable. Under certain circumstances, as detailed below, the Top Prize ~~mayis~~ required to be paid in a single ~~lump~~Lump sumSum Cash payment and no Annuitized Payment Option is available.

- 5.0.1.1 One Top Prize Winner. If there is one Top Prize winner, the annuitized prize value will be $7,000 per week for life. As an alternative to the Annuitized Payment Option, the Top Prize winner may request the Top Prize Cash Option in the amount set forth in the Published Notice.

- 5.0.1.2 Two to Fourteen Top Prize Winners. If there is more than one and less than or equal to fourteen Top Prize winners, the Annuitized Payment Option, based on an annuitized prize value of $7,000.00 per week, will be divided by the total number of Top Prize winners. will be split equally among the winners. The minimum annuitized prize value for this category will be $500.00 a week for life. Any of these two to fourteen Top Prize winners may choose the Cash Option as an alternative to the Annuitized Payment Option.

The amount of the Cash Option for this category will be the amount of the Top Prize Cash Option set forth in the Published Notice divided by the total number of Top Prize winners. The minimum Cash Option for this category will be the amount set forth in the Published Notice.

5.0.1.3 Fifteen or more Top Prize Winners. If there are more than fourteen Top Prize winners, the ~~top Top prize~~Prize liability ~~of $7,687,023.60 shall be capped at $7,125,000.00 and~~ shall be split equally among all ~~top Top prize~~Prize winners and paid in one ~~lump Lump sum~~Sum Cash payment, without an Annuitized Payment Option. The minimum prize value for this category ~~will be $26,000.00 shall not be less than any lower tier prize paid in that respective drawing.~~

5.0.1.4 Claiming the top prize. The winner(s) of the Top Prize who do not request the Cash Option shall be paid their appropriate ~~top Top prize~~Prize share on an annual or semi-annual basis for a minimum period of twenty (20) years. Upon receipt of the claim form and the ticket by the Maine State Lottery, a five (5) working day processing period will be initiated. During the five (5) day processing period, the ticket holder(s) may add or substitute other persons as co-holders of a winning ticket. This request must be a written, notarized request from the original holder(s) to the Maine State Lottery office. After the five (5) day processing period has been completed, the Maine State Lottery pay the ~~top Top prize~~Prize. Subsequent ~~top Top prize~~Prize payments will be made annually or semi-annually thereafter as determined by the person claiming the ~~top Top prize~~Prize.

5.0.1.5 Measuring Life. For a single wager, the measuring life of a Top Prize winner used to determine the duration over which the Top Prize is paid, shall be the natural life of the individual determined by the Selling Lottery to be a Top Prize winner. If the Top Prize under a single wager is being claimed by more than one natural person or by a legal entity the measuring life for a Top Prize winner shall be twenty (20) years.

5.0.1.6 If paid in a ~~lump Lump sum~~Sum Cash payment, ~~top Top prize~~Prize amounts will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

5.0.2 Except as provided in these rules, the second prize (Prize Level #2) winner will be paid ~~as a $25,000.00 set prize~~a year for life. A second prize winner may request the Cash Option, the amount of which is to be established by unanimous vote of the Directors for a defined period of drawings. Notice of the amount of and changes to the Cash Option shall be posted on the Lucky for Life website and/or published in each jurisdiction in a manner determined by its respective Party Lottery (hereinafter referred to as the "Published Notice") at least thirty (30) days prior to the first drawing to which it is applicable. If there are more than one hundred winners of this prize level, the total prize liability of $2,500,000 ($25,000 x 100) will be split equally among the winners. Under certain circumstances, as detailed below, the second prize is required to be paid in a single Lump Sum Cash payment. ~~Under no circumstances, however, will the second prize fall below a minimum prize value of $2,000.00 regardless of the number of winners. Second prizes will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar and paid in one lump sum payment.~~

5.0.2.1 One to Twenty Second Prize Winners. For one to twenty second prize winner(s), the annuitized prize value will be $25,000.00 per year for life. Any of these one to twenty second prize winner(s) may choose the second prize Cash Option as an alternative to the Annuitized Payment Option. The amount of the Cash Option for this category will be set forth in the Published Notice.

5.0.2.2 Twenty-one or more Second Prize Winners. If there are more than twenty second prize winners, the second prize liability shall be capped at $9,400,000.00 and shall be split equally among all second prize winners and paid in one Lump Sum Cash payment, without an Annuitized Payment Option. The minimum prize value for this category shall not be less than any lower tier prize paid in that respective drawing.

5.0.2.3 The winner(s) of the second prize who do not request the Cash Option shall be paid their appropriate second prize share on an annual basis for a minimum period of twenty (20) years. Upon receipt of the claim form and the ticket by the Maine State Lottery, a five (5) working day processing period will be initiated. During the five (5) day processing period, the ticket holder(s) may add or substitute other persons as co-holders of a winning ticket. This request must be a written, notarized request from the original holder(s) to the Maine State Lottery office. After the five (5) day processing period has been completed, the Maine State Lottery will pay the second prize. Subsequent second prize payments will be made annually thereafter.

5.0.2.4 Measuring Life. For a single wager, the measuring life of a second prize winner used to determine the duration over which the second prize is paid, shall be the natural life of the individual determined by the Selling Lottery to be a second prize winner. If the second prize under a single wager is being claimed by more than one natural person or by a legal entity, the measuring life for a second prize winner shall be twenty (20) years.

5.0.2.5 If paid in a Lump Sum Cash payment, second prize amounts will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

5.0.3 Except as provided in these rules, the third prize (Prize Level #3) will be paid as a ~~$2,000~~$3,000.00 set prize. If there are more than one thousand winners of this prize level, the total prize liability of ~~$2,000,000~~$3,000,000.00 (~~$2,000~~$3,000.00 x 1,000) will be split equally among the winners. Under no circumstances, however, will the third prize fall below a minimum prize value of ~~$100~~$200.00 regardless of the number of winners. Third prizes will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar and paid in one ~~lump-sum~~single cash payment.

5.0.4 The remaining prize levels (Prize Level #4 through Prize Level #10) will be paid as low-tier set prizes. Prizes will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar and paid in one ~~lump-sum~~single cash payment.

5.1 Entitlement to Prizes by Winners. The holder of a winning “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket shall be entitled only to the prize won by matching the winning numbers in the highest matching prize category.

5.2 Payment of Prizes. All winning “Lucky for Life” Game Tickets, including the Top Prize and second prize, shall be paid in accordance with these rules and state laws. Each Party Lottery shall withhold taxes and other required withholdings in accordance with applicable federal and state laws. To be a valid Game Ticket and eligible to receive a prize, a winning “Lucky for Life” Game Ticket shall satisfy all the requirements established for the validation of winning Game Tickets sold through each Party Lottery’s On-Line Gaming System and any other requirements adopted by the Directors. The Party Lotteries shall not be responsible for Game Tickets which are altered in any manner.

5.2.1 Top Prize and second prize Payments. Unless a ~~lump-sum~~Cash Option, Lump Sum Cash payment, single cash payment or lump sum is paid in accordance with these rules, annuitized prize payments shall be made for the measuring life of ~~the~~ Top Prize or second prize winner. All annuitized payments shall be made for a minimum of twenty (20) years.
